

“Shall the bill pass?”

The yeas and nays were asked for, and on taking them, they appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Forrest,	Montgomery,
Hughlett,	Osborn—5
Mayer,

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Chapman, Pre'st.	Pigman,
Emory,	Sappington,
Morris.	Wilson.—6.

So it was determined in the negative, and the bill returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Forrest,

The bill entitled, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act to authorise a lottery to raise a sum of money for the purpose of finishing the Roman Catholic church in Frederick town, Frederick county,

Was read the third time, and

On motion of Mr. Forrest, ordered to lie on the table.

Mr Forrest from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act relating to a road in Montgomery county, reported favorably thereon

It was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and returned to the House of Delegates.

The bill entitled, An act to divorce Margaret Callahan of Frederick county, from her husband, Patrick Callahan,

Was read the third time, passed, and returned to the House of Delegates.

The bill entitled, An act to divorce Lucy O'Brien, of the city of Baltimore, from her husband William O'Brien,

Was read the third time, and rejected.

On motion of Mr. Morris

Said bill was reconsidered, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Emory, from the committee on colored population, to which was referred the bill entitled, An act for the benefit of Dr. Henry Clagett, of Leesburg, Loudon county; in the state of Virginia, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought not to pass.

It was read the second, and was being read the third time, by special order, when,

On motion of Mr. Forrest,
